CSC Receives Grant from the Edwin T. and Mary E. Hamilton Fund:

- The Cleveland Foundation recently awarded CSC a $100,000 grant through the Edwin T. and Mary E. Hamilton Fund for general support. The Edwin T. and Mary E. Hamilton Fund was established in 1960 by Miss Florence Hamilton in memory of her parents, who are the fund's namesake. For over 55 years, CSC programs have received an annual distribution from this memorial endowment, which is held by the Cleveland Foundation.

Educating the Community and Strengthening Partnerships:

- Friends of Highbrook Lodge at the Special Lines Division of Progressive Insurance are hard at work raising funds to purchase something for Highbrook Lodge again this coming spring! As part of their fundraising efforts, the group spent time gift wrapping at Mentor's Great Lakes Mall on Thursday evening – with all the proceeds going to their fundraising efforts for Highbrook Lodge! Lindsay Svarovsky represented CSC and Highbrook Lodge at the event.
- The third and final group of students from Hawken School visited CSC on Wednesday, December 13th to learn about the agency and technology from Lisa Cellura and Alicia Howerton.
- Desmond Kennedy made visits this week to the Cleveland Eye Clinic in Elyria, the Corrective Eye Center in Independence and Cleveland State University's Career Services department. Lisa Cellura and Desmond Kennedy hosted Lourdes Negrón McDaniel from MetroHealth in a networking meeting to learn more about programs and services. Desmond and Alicia Howerton represent CSC at the Gunning Recreation Center health and community fair on Friday, December 15th.

- Tom Sawyer and Alicia Howerton made visits in the Summit County area on Tuesday, December 12th. Stops included Cardinal Retirement Community, Summit Point, The Gardens at Summit Point, Sunrise at Cuyahoga Falls, Gardens of Western Reserve, Danbury Woods and Danbury Senior Living, Traditions at Bath Road and The Merriman.

What's Happening at CSC:

- The CYAS department hosted the annual “Cookies and Milk with Santa” event at CSC on Saturday. A total of 250 people including clients and their family members came through the festive halls of CSC.
