- CSC will host the Foundation Fighting Blindness on Saturday, April 7th for a meeting on their upcoming VisionWalk. The Eyedea Shop will be open from 10:30 a.m. – 1:30 p.m. for clients and the general public on this weekend day.

What's Happening at CSC:

- A note received in the Eyedea Shop this week from a happy customer: “Dear Regina, Jackie and Barb – Thank you so much for your expertise and kindness in helping me pick out a new magnifying glass. It has been a real asset to my reading. Thanks again. Fondly, Alice”
- The Low Vision Clinic now offers children’s glasses. Stop in to check out the recently installed kids display, pictured below.

- It's been a busy month for students in Bright Futures Preschool and filled with many fun activities. Students participated in a scavenger hunt throughout the CYAS department in search of a pot of gold left by a leprechaun...finding it in Mrs. Sylvia's office! They also had a visit from Ranger Dana of the Cuyahoga Valley National Park who talked about birds in springtime and enjoyed a field trip to the Cleveland Botanical Gardens. Some classroom lessons in preparation of upcoming horseback riding lessons and getting ready for Easter capped off the fun the last few weeks!

- CSC will host an assistive technology discussion and presentation of IrisVision on Wednesday, March 28th. The event will be from 12:00 p.m. – 1:00 p.m. in the Clyde E. Williams, Jr. Auditorium at CSC. For additional information, contact Tom Sawyer (216-791-8118).
- CSC welcomes author Annie Hogsett to the agency for Book Discussion on Wednesday, April 4th. Book Discussion will be from 12:00 p.m. – 2:00 p.m. and will feature Too Lucky to Live, a story about “Thomas Bennington III, a blind English professor, who comes close to losing a lottery ticket he’s purchased when he’s almost run over by a Hummer while crossing a Cleveland, Ohio, street. Fortunately, Allie Harper, who was waiting for a bus, comes to his rescue. Allie takes Tom back to her house, where they share dinner and hear on TV that Tom has won a $550 million jackpot. He’s shocked and none too pleased, having bought the ticket to prove to a youngster named Rune that the lottery is a waste of time and money. Rune, on the other hand, is thrilled about helping pick the winning numbers, but the news that he’s sharing the money lands him in danger. Within hours, three men are dead and Rune’s mother is hospitalized. Tom and Allie rush in to help, only to find Rune is missing.” Discussion of the book will be followed by refreshments and questions & answers with the author. For more information, contact Alicia Howerton (216-791-8118).
